SIERRA MADRE SCHOOL UPDATE:

Sierra Madre city councilman Chris Koerber shared the following brief update on the Sierra Madre Upper Project received from PUSD:

The district has received all the documentation in from the Contractor -Sinanian who has in turn been sent the official Notice To Proceed.

Frazer Thompson of PUSD has also sent out a request to the Contractor and union agent assisting the District to please coordinate the trades meeting for the 5th. Immediately following that meeting the "formal project kick-off meeting (where we make sure the contractor understands the rules of working on a school site, will set all our meetings, make final determinations for the expectations we have, and can ask any lingering questions before we get going) and immediately after that we will be underway."

EXCESSIVE HEAT

Sierra Madre May Reach Triple Digits On Sunday Los Angeles County Issues The Following Alert:

LOS ANGELES - The Los Angeles County Health Officer has declared a Heat Alert as high temperatures have been forecast beginning tomorrow for the Santa Clarita and Antelope Valleys through Monday, July 1 and the San Fernando, San Gabriel and East San Gabriel Valleys through Sunday, June 30. This alert may be extended if weather conditions do not improve.

The Department of Public Health would like to remind everyone that precautions should be taken, especially by individuals who participate in outdoor activities, older adults, caretakers of infants and children, and those sensitive to the heat.

"Everyone should remember to take special care of themselves, children, the elderly, and their pets. Extreme heat such as this is not just an inconvenience, it can be dangerous and even deadly," said Jonathan E. Fielding, MD, MPH, Director of Public Health and Health Officer. "When temperatures are high, prolonged sun exposure may cause dehydration, heat cramps, heat exhaustion, and heat stroke. Deaths can occur in vulnerable population's particularly very young children and frail elderly. Over 700 deaths occurred in Chicago during a heat wave in the late 1990s. Equally large numbers of deaths have occurred in Europe during a heat wave. It is critically important to never leave children, elderly people, or pets unattended in homes with no air conditioning and particularly in vehicles, even with the windows 'cracked' or open, as temperatures inside can quickly rise to life-threatening levels. If you have an elderly or infirm neighbor without air conditioning, make sure that they get to a cooling center or other air conditioned space between 10 a.m. and 8 p.m."

Air quality in the Santa Clarita Valley will be unhealthy for sensitive individuals. People living or working in these areas with heart disease, asthma or other respiratory disease should minimize outdoor activities. Schools or youth camps that have children with sensitive conditions, including heart disease, asthma, other chronic respiratory diseases, should not participate in PE or outdoor physical activity and should stay indoors as much as possible. Additionally, schools, day camps, and non-school related sports organizations or athletes should take extra precautions during extreme heat. Practices and other outdoor activities should be scheduled for very early or very late in the day in order to limit the amount of time spent in the sun and

If you plan to be outdoors, please take precautions to protect yourself from the sun and heat.

Avoid the sun from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. when the burning rays are strongest.

Reduce physical activity.

Wear a wide-brimmed hat and light colored lightweight, loose-fitting clothes when you are outdoors

Avoid hot, heavy meals that include

Set your air conditioner between 75° to 80°. If you don't have air-conditioning take a cool shower twice a day and visit a public air conditioned facility.

Sierra Madre City Manager Elaine Aguilar reminds residents that should air conditioning and/or power fail and you are in need of a place to go, city facilities such as the Senior Center, City Council Chambers, or the Recreation Center are available during normal business hours. (City Hall and the Senior Center are closed Friday, Saturday and Sunday – but reopen on Monday at 11:00 am.) The Library is also available and is open on Saturday.

Other Places To Go: Altadena Senior Center (626) 798-4971 560 East Mariposa St. Altadena Mon –Fri 8 am – 5 pm

Arcadia Senior Center (626) 574-5130 365 Campus Drive Arcadia Mon -Fri 8:30 am - 4:30 pm

Pasadena Senior Center (626) 795-4331 85 East Holly St Pasadena Mon -Fri 8:30 am - 4:30 pm Sat 8:30 am - 3 pm

Drink plenty of fluids even if you are not thirsty. Avoid alcohol.

Use sun screen with a sun protection factor of at least 15 if you need to be in the sun.

Don't forget about your pets, they need plenty of water and shade. Symptoms of dehydration and heat cramps include dizziness, fatigue, faintness, headaches, muscle cramps and increased thirst.

Note: Air quality can easily degrade during hot weather. If you have heart disease, asthma or other lung disease, minimize outdoor activity to reduce heat-related illness.

FRIENDS OF THE SIERRA MADRE LIBRARY ANNUAL MEETING

By Jane Zamanzadeh

On Wednesday, June 19, Friends' President, Darlene Traxler, and Vice-President, Beth Smith-Kellock, welcomed guests into the parish hall at Sierra Madre United Methodist Church for the Friends of the Sierra Madre Library annual dinner meeting.

In celebration of the Friends' 60th birthday, the hall had been decorated in the bright colors of birthday balloons with lovely birthday cakes serving as the table centerpieces.

Darlene greeted all the guests and introduced the Mayor, Nancy Walsh, City Council members, Library Trustees, and city staff in attendance. She also recognized former Director of Library Services Toni

Carolyn Thomas, the Director of Library Services thanked the Friends and volunteers for all their support this year and raising additional funds for the Library that helped in providing such services as 2 new databases, Ancestry.com and New Book Alert, as well as programs such as eReader, Summer Reading for children and adults, One Book One City, I Love My Library Contest and 2 Digital Storyboard presentations. A new iPad has been purchased that can be used by patrons.

The current Friends of the Library Board members were asked to stand to be recognized and the dinner committee consisting of Sandra Dickey, Fran Garbaccio, Beth Smith-Kellock, Pat Locher, Sharon Murphy, Connie Wortham, Mary Talwar, and Toni Navarro were thanked for organizing such a lovely event. Chair of the Library Trustees, Glenn Putnam, was introduced and congratulated us for another successful year and also said he really appreciates our many fund raising efforts. They enable the Library to be what it is today and fulfill many of the Library's requests. Darlene thanked Sue Hart, Archives Chairperson, for gathering information about the Friends' 60 years of service and fundraising for our Library and directed guest's attention to the display she had created in the back of the room.

Beth Smith-Kellock reported on the Partner's Program that was started by the Friends to raise additional funds for the Library. We have 35 current members who have pledged to give annually at levels of either $100; $250 or $500. Last year $4,000 was given to help remodel the Children's Reading Room. She has also completed a new updated brochure for (cont. on page 3)

GARDEN CLUB HOSTS FUN IN THE PARK FOR KIDS

The Sierra Madre Garden Club got a whole crop of new gardeners started when they hosted the City's Fun in the Park session in Memorial Park on Tuesday, June 25th. The Garden Club members painted and sealed terra cotta flower pots and then covered them in chalk-board paint, ready to be decorated and personalized by each little gardener. They also provided a bin of potting soil and flats of succulents, along with trowels, chop sticks, chalk and stickers

The free event attracted children from ages 2 ½ to 8 years old, who each happily personalized their flower pot, and then filled it with soil. Chop sticks were used to poke holes into the soil so the stems of the plants could be easily inserted into the dirt. Each child got to pick plants that they liked from the many shapes and colors the club members offered up, and the succulents were inserted into the pot and tamped down. There were lots of proud smiles as the kids showed off their handiwork!

One young gardener, Toby, who is 8 years old and has a budding green thumb said, "I like succulents because you can just cut a piece off and it grows. And it's good for this weather because they don't

SIERRA MADRE POLICE BLOTTER

For the period June 16-23, 2013

Sunday June 16, 2013

Overnight, an unknown suspect entered a vehicle parked in a driveway in the 400 block of Grove Street and rummaged through the interior. Once inside, the suspect was also able to access the vehicle trunk and remove items from that area. The suspect took small items of value and left the scene without being seen. There was no sign of forced entry into the vehicle and the owner admitted that he had not locked the car that night.

At 6pm, a traffic collision occurred in the intersection of Oak Crest Drive and Deodar Circle. A vehicle exiting the Deodar Circle cu-de-sac, failed to yield to a vehicle travelling north on Oak Crest Circle. The parties sustained minor injuries and both vehicles were towed from the scene.

Tuesday June 18, 2013

At 2pm, units responded to a report of a kidnapping at Kersting Court. On arrival officers determined that the matter was not a kidnap, but was a fight between a father and daughter. The two were travelling in a vehicle when they became engaged in a verbal argument. At one point, the daughter attempted to exit the vehicle while it was still moving. In response the father used physical force to prevent her from doing so. A battery report was completed and the investigation into the matter is continuing.

Thursday June 20, 2013

At 3:45am, a resident in the 700 block of West Sierra Madre Boulevard observed a suspicious vehicle parked in an apartment carport. The vehicle doors were open and the lights were on. He immediately notified police of the situation. As officers arrived at the location, they observed a female (suspect) standing at a carport storage compartment that had both doors open. The individual was detained and officers determined that a large amount of property was stacked on the ground a short distance away. It was determined that the suspicious vehicle belonged to the suspect and it contained a large amount of property as well. Also found in the vehicle was the suspect's 8 month old son. It was determined that the suspect had been rummaging through a number of carport storage compartments, removing property and loading the items into her vehicle. During a search of the vehicle, methamphetamine was found and it was determined that the suspect was currently on probation for Burglary. An arrest was made and the District Attorney's Office subsequently filed counts of Burglary, Possession of Narcotics and Child Endangerment on the suspect. The child was released to the care of the Department of Children's services.

Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Log

The Sierra Madre Search and Rescue (SMSR) Team responded to seven individual calls for assistance in May with all of the calls taking place in our local foothills.

Injured Hikers, Hermit Falls, Chantry Flat: As we move into the summer months and schools are getting out for summer vacation, the Team is seeing increased activity in the Hermit Falls area. May 2nd, 26th (2 calls) and the 30th all accounted for rescues for the rescue team. As is typical for accidents in the area, hikers often suffer injuries when jumping from the rocks into the pools in the area. Injuries range from relatively minor to very serious. Hikers are asked to exercise good judgement and discretion when spending time in our local mountains. Even with rapid notification and response from emergency agencies, rescues take much longer to complete when access entails hiking to the accident site.

In February of 2012, a class of 9 probationary members began training to becoming full members of Sierra Madre Search and Rescue. On May 10th and 11th, the 6 probationary members who had made it through the program to that point successfully completed their Mountain Rescue Association (MRA) certification testing. This testing included written, oral and hands-on demonstration of key mountain rescue skills. The skills testing takes place in a field setting under the supervision of senior Team members who carefully evaluate and critique performance. The skills the probationary members mastered include a variety of high-angle rescue, land navigation, patient packaging, tracking, helicopter operations, snow and ice travel, swiftwater rescue, and incident management skills. After successfully completing their testing, these members will begin classes to become nationally-certified EMT's. The Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team congratulates the former probationers on completing this milestone and earning their, "Blue Patches" and becoming full Team

For over 60 years the all-volunteer Sierra Madre Search and Rescue team has been responding to calls for help in the local mountains and beyond. Funded entirely by private donations, SMSR provides a range of public programs on wilderness safety in addition to its search and rescue activities. The Team never charges for any of its services.

NEW CITY HALL PUBLIC HOURS BEGIN JULY 1ST

Beginning July 1, 2013 the offices at City Hall and the Community Recreation centers will be open Monday - Thursday 11:00am - 5:30pm.

At the May 28, 2013 City Council meeting, the City Council adopted new open hours for City Hall and the Community Recreation offices as a part of the fiscal year 2013-2015 bi-annual budget.

The Council implemented the new open hours at City Hall and Community Recreation offices to offset for the reduced staffing levels implemented over the last five years. The adopted FY 2013-2015 budget also includes additional consolidated job responsibilities as well as technology enhancements to continue to improve work efficiencies and effectiveness, in order to serve Sierra Madre citizens.

SIGNS TO CURB SUICIDES TO BE PLACED ON BRIDGE

Man jumps from the bridge to his death Tuesday night.

City officials announced last week they are set to place signs on the Colorado Street Bridge in August in hopes of preventing people from jumping to their deaths from the iconic structure nicknamed, "Suicide Bridge."

The 12 inch by 18 inch signs will display a telephone number for suicide hotline crisis counselors and the message,
"Life Is Worth Living."
Four metal signs will be placed men have jumped compared to

MUTUAL AID WORKING WELL IN MONROVIA AND SURROUNDING COMMUNITIES

This past Saturday morning I was driving north on Mayflower Avenue from Camino Real. Before I approached Duarte Road, from a distance, I could see two police cars with blinking lights and eventually several fire trucks/engines. I parked my car and decided to investigate as I noticed LA County Fire Engine #169, which serves our M.A.D. area, yet this was the "City" of Monrovia.

I spoke to the first two fire officials - one was L.A. County Battalion Chief Kaliher - and learned this was a "small structure" fire, and under just about extinguished when I arrived. I also saw Monrovia Fire Deputy Chief Fabrizio and realized this was a joint effort.

Monrovia Fire Department Station 102 was the first responder. When I walked over to County Fire Truck #169, I was surprised to see Captain Alex Haua, whom I've known for over fifteen years! When I was on the Town Council, from 1993-2003, the County Fire personnel were usually rotated among various stations, so it was a great surprise to see an old friend! Captain Haua said they had been out, so they were able to respond quickly and were the second agency to arrive! Arcadia Fire Department also was on hand to assist. The whole situation just reinforced the Mutual Aid Agreement between LA County Fire Department and the surrounding city agencies. Residents NEED to know there are NO BOUNDARIES when emergency situations arise.

I also spoke with Captain Haua. For County residents, we have Station # 169 on Peck Road in El Monte. There are three shifts, A, B and C. During each shift there is a Captain, Engineer and Paramedic/Firefighter. We have one fire truck. The Captains are Alex Haua, Larry Burke (He came to Annunciation School back in the late 80's as a Fire Inspector doing the tabletop demonstration for the 6th, 7th and 8th grades and was awesome!) and newly assigned Captain Glen Crow. When a "MAD" county resident dials 911 for a fire, Fire Truck #169 responds from their station on Peck/Hemlock. Within five minutes, you will hear more sirens. Paramedics from County Station #167 (Peck/Bryant) soon follow. When I spoke to Captain Haua this morning, he told me that earlier this week there was a small awning/ brush fire right outside the mobile home park on South Peck Road (County area), and Monrovia Fire responded too! The two great agencies worked together and put the fire out!

Los Angeles County Fire Department, Monrovia Fire Department, Arcadia Fire Department. Doesn't matter whose jurisdiction you're in. ALL provide EXCELLENT service, and because of mutual aid, there's always another agency on hand to assist!

When I was 3 or 4 - I don't recall the exact age except that I wasn't in kindergarten yet – I recall waking up in the early morning and hearing sounds sounds of movement, of pans closing, the normal sounds you'd expect to hear in the morning in a kitchen. But the only reason I heard any sounds so early was that everyone else was asleep and the house of five boys was relatively quiet.

I recall lying there on the lower bunk of a bunkbed, wondering what I was hearing, and who was making the noises. After some time, I had the realization that we had some witches in the kitchen. They came at night after everyone went to sleep and did whatever witches do in the kitchen. They'd disappear by the time everyone woke up and crawled out of our beds and fought our way to the bathroom and then made our way to the kitchen to have cereal or whatever my mother might be

When I heard witches in the kitchen in the early morning, I was always cautious when around for clues, something left on the counter, something out of them that would conclusively prove that witches had been in the kitchen during the night.

Sometimes I would ask questions to a brother or my mother, attempting to determine if they knew about it too. But my roundabout questions were too indirect to get meaningful responses, and if anyone else knew about the witches, they weren't talking. #### SUSPECT RELEASED IN ATTEMPTED ABDUCTION OF SIX YEAR OLD CHILD

On Tuesday, the Los Angeles Superior Court in Pasadena released the suspect in an attempted abduction of a six year old girl in Arcadia. The attempt was thwarted by the child's cries for help and her kicking. The incident happened at Arcadia County Park on Sunday afternoon, June 23, 2013.

The little girl was playing in a picnic area at Arcadia County Park before 3 p.m. when the man, identified as 33-year-old Jason Macklin Bell, grabbed her and attempted to drag her away, police said. Bell tried to flee when the girl started to fight him off, but he didn't get far. He was arrested a short distance away and taken by the LA County Sheriff's Department Parks Bureau to jail.

Bell, who investigators said is a transient, was expected to face kidnapping and child annoyance charges. His bail was originally set at $400,000. However, LA County Sheriff Department records indicate that on June 25th, two days later, while being held on an increased bail of $1,000,000, Bell was released. It is not clear whether or not law enforcement is pursuing another suspect or whether the case has been dropped.

ATTEMPTED MURDER ON LOVELL AVENUE -SUSPECT AT LARGE

On June 25, 2013, at about 1:38 PM, the Police Department received 9-1-1 calls with people reporting shots fired in the area of Lovell Avenue just south of Duarte Road. Witnesses reported that the suspect and victim vehicles left the area. A vehicle window had been shot out.

Officers responded to the area and confirmed that a shooting had taken place. The male adult victim later returned to the scene of the shooting. The victim said that he had been standing on the east sidewalk and the suspect stopped his vehicle on Lovell Avenue. The victim and suspect exchanged words, and the victim thought the suspect was about to shoot at him. The victim ducked, the suspect shot at him, and the victim's vehicle was struck. The victim was not hit by the shots. The motive of this shooting is still under investigation.

The suspect was described as a male, African-American, with a medium build, in his early 30's, wearing a dark-colored long-sleeved shirt, and he used an unknown weapon. The vehicle was described as a 2006, black, four-door, Toyota sedan.

This incident is being investigated by Arcadia Police Department Detectives. Anyone with information on this incident is encouraged to contact the Arcadia Police Department at (626) 574-

ARCADIA ROTARY TO WELCOME WIDE RECEIVER J. K. MCKAY AS SPEAKER

by Anne Donofrio-Holter

The Arcadia Rotary Club is pleased to announce former University of Southern California wide receiver J. K. McKay as its guest

The name John "J. K." McKay is synonymous with Trojan football greatness," said club president Eric Barter. "He will speak on Trojan football, past, present and future."

McKay, who still ranks 23rd on USC's career receiving list, was a member of USC's 1972 and 1974 national championship teams where he played for his father, head coach John McKay.

In 1975, he was named co-MVP in the USC/Ohio State Rose Bowl game. He played in three Rose Bowl games and was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1998.

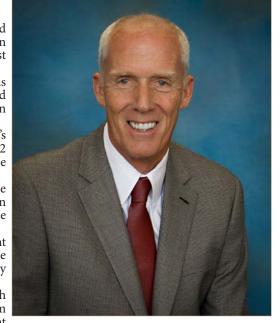

McKay spent some time as an assistant receiver from 1976 to 1978 for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers where his father was head coach.

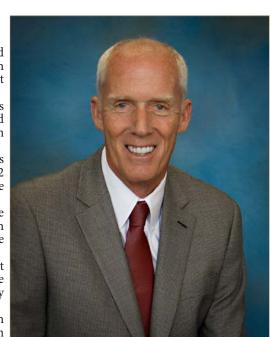

A practicing attorney, he has worked with groups interesting in bringing a football team back to Los Angeles and served as vice president and general manager of the now defunct XFL Los Angeles Xtreme football team. In 2010, McKay became USC's Senior Associate Athletic Director.

"Our club members are looking forward to this interesting and exciting program," said Barter. The Arcadia Rotary Club meets every Friday from noon to 1:30 pm at the Embassy Suites Hotel located at 211 E Huntington Drive in Arcadia. For additional information, go to www.arcadiarotary.

Arcadia Police Blotter

For the period of Sunday, June 16th, through Saturday, June 22nd, the Police Department responded to 917 calls for service of which 125 required formal investigations. The following is a summary report of the major incidents handled by the Department during this period.

1. Just after 2:31 a.m., officers were dispatched to Prince Jewelers, 411 East Huntington Drive, in regards to a sounding burglary alarm. Officers discovered unknown suspect(s) forced entry and fled with approximately $20,000 worth of gold. The suspects, described as White or Hispanic males wearing dark colored clothing, were recorded on video surveillance. Further investigation is being conducted by

Around 10:50 a.m., officers responded to the 100 block of East Foothill Boulevard regarding a report of a robbery. The victim explained he was at Arcadia County Park on June 15th when an unknown male suspect physically assaulted him and stole his cell phone. The victim advised the suspect was still at the park. Officers responded to the location and arrested the 35-year-old White male. He was transported to the Arcadia City Jail for booking.

Monday, June 17:

At approximately 11:39 a.m., an officer was dispatched to Hugo Reid School, 1153 De Anza Place, in regards to bones found at a construction site. The bones were examined by the Los Angeles County Coroner's Office who determined the bones were from a cow, and not human remains. The area was inspected for additional bones, but none were found.

4. Just after 4:45 p.m., an officer responded to the Santa Anita Mall, 400 South Baldwin Avenue, regarding a report of two small children locked inside a vehicle. After a lady secured her grandchildren in their car seats, she closed the passenger door and attempted to open her driver-side door; however, the vehicle had automatically locked itself. The officer smashed the rear window with her baton and removed the children who had been inside for approximately ten minutes. The children were removed safely and evaluated by the Arcadia Fire Department. The officer sustained minor cuts to her hand.

At about 0:31 a.m., an officer conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle for lane drifting on Santa Anita Avenue, at Huntington Drive. The officer discovered the driver was under the influence of alcohol with a blood alcohol level greater than 0.08 percent. A records check revealed the suspect had an outstanding misdemeanor warrant. The 20-year-old Hispanic male was arrested and transported to the Arcadia City

Around 6:19 p.m., an officer was dispatched to the 000 block of Genoa Street in regards to a possible fraud report. The elderly victim received a phone call from an unknown suspect who informed him that he had won a $2.5 million sweepstakes. The victim was persuaded to purchase $2,500 in prepaid gift cards and read the serial numbers to the caller as a prerequisite to claiming his prize. The victim later discovered it was a scam.

Wednesday, June 19:

7. Just before 1:30 p.m., an officer was dispatched to Macy's at the Santa Anita Mall, 400 South Baldwin Avenue, in regards to a theft report. The suspect entered a fitting room, concealed items inside her purse, and exited the store without making payment. The 21-year-old Chinese female was arrested and transported to the Arcadia City Jail for booking.

8. Around 6:34 p.m., an officer responded to Nordstrom at the Santa Anita Mall, 400 South Baldwin Avenue, in regards to a fraud report. The loss prevention agent discovered a female suspect paid for merchandise using counterfeit bills. An investigation revealed the suspect also passed counterfeit bills at other Nordstrom locations and is currently on probation for felony theft. The suspect's identity is known and further investigation is being conducted by the Detective Bureau.

At about 11:13 a.m., an officer responded to Albertsons, 298 East Live Oak Avenue, in regards to a burglary report. Video surveillance revealed two suspects concealed baby formula inside an empty purse and used shopping bags. The suspects exited the store without making payment and were seen driving away in a dark colored SUV. The suspects are described as a Black male and Black female, in their midtwenties. An investigation revealed the suspects may have also stolen from an Albertsons in the City of

Shortly after 7:00 p.m., officers were dispatched to a traffic accident at the intersection of Live Oak Avenue and Santa Anita Avenue. Party-one made an unsafe turn onto Live Oak Avenue at a high rate of speed, lost control, and collided into the center median. She subsequently struck two vehicles and injured one of the drivers. The victim was transported to Arcadia Methodist Hospital for evaluation.

At about 1:06 a.m., an officer responded to Knockouts Gentlemen's Club, 1580 Clark Street, in reference to a battery report. A disgruntled night club dancer struck a security guard in the face, causing a laceration to his nose. The 24-year-old White female suspect fled the location. Her identity

Just after 6:10 p.m., an officer was dispatched to Nordstrom at the Santa Anita Mall, 400 South Baldwin Avenue, in regards to a fraud report. The suspect attempted to make a purchase with a fraudulent credit card. An investigation revealed the 33-year-old Vietnamese male suspect had two outstanding felony warrants. He was arrested and transported to the Arcadia City Jail for booking.

At approximately 1:56 a.m., an officer conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle for no front license plate in the area of Huntington Drive and Santa Anita Avenue. Upon contact with the driver, the officer detected an odor of alcohol emitting from the driver's breath and person. An investigation revealed the 32-year-old White male was under the influence. He was arrested and transported to the Arcadia City Jail for booking.

Around 9:42 a.m., an officer responded to the 300 block of California Street, in regards to a residential burglary report. The victim discovered unknown suspect(s) entered her garage by an unknown means and stole her vehicle. No evidence was located and no one reported seeing or hearing anything suspicious.

MONROVIA-ARCADIA-DUARTE TOWN COUNCIL: The VERY HEATED Meeting in Arcadia By Joan Schmidt

Council Meeting held at Annunciation Hall certainly was the latter!

Over the years, I have witnessed heated meetings. One of the first concerned the proposed Greystone Homes on the former Edwards Drive-in site across from Annunciation Church. One parishioner stood up and said, "Monsignor doesn't want car lights shining in his bedroom window. (Impossible - his room is at the back of the rectory!) There were heated complaints about increased traffic, but that never happened! The second battle involved the proposed Albertson's on Live Oak. At least TEN irate residents said their house faced the site, but a drive-by down Lenore Street found ONE house DIAGONALLY facing

At the recent Town Council meeting, the two issues were Hope House, a group home at 2051 Fairgreen Avenue, Monrovia and the proposed low-income housing on Live Oak Avenue in Arcadia. The group home houses four developmentally disabled men, each with the mental capacity of a young child. Mr. David Bernstein, Director will be resolved, but people still came up to of the Program explained that the state now dictates large facilities are no longer permitted; small group homes now must be response is now TWO caregivers, so the utilized. The resident's door was unlocked, but that was not the issue. No one should wander into someone else's home. However residents were yelling out, "He broke in". There was a lot of yelling and Town Council Chair, David Hall, did a good job of keeping order. Everyone had a chance to speak. However, common courtesy so far went out the window that Captain Nee, Commander of Temple Station, had to tell the people to behave. It

George Lopez, one of the site's caretakers was also verbally attacked. I understand the people's concern, but when it's the EIGHTH person repeating the attack, it gets ridiculous. Mr. Lopez explained that the State of California doesn't allow "locked facilities". Group homes also have to go through channels to get permission to put locks on windows. However, following her were irate residents attacking Rose Olson, Director of Housing and Real Estate Development. Mr. Hall pointed out the other multi-storied buildings on Live Oak - bank, attorney's office, etc.) One man complained the proposed building would block his view of the mountains. I wondered how the existing Church - soon to be razed - did not block his view. The residents were told that the Planning Commission would be holding further meetings on this issue. #### Theft From a Vehicle

June 24 at 1:37 p.m., a theft from a vehicle in the 1000 block of Oakleaf was reported to police. The victim parked her car in front of her house the previous night. When she returned to her vehicle the next afternoon, she noticed the glove compartment was open. A small amount of currency and miscellaneous items were taken. The victim had left the vehicle unlocked. The investigation is continuing.

Vehicle Burglary

June 25 at 1:00 p.m., a female subject was attempting to deliver documents to a business in the 800 block of West Foothill. She walked from her car to the front of the business and left her purse in the car. She found the business was locked. A male subject who had just exited his vehicle told her she could deliver her package to the rear of the business, as the backdoor was open. The woman went to the back of the building and found it was locked, also.

When she returned to the front of the business, she saw the male subject with her purse in his hand. He casually got into his car with the purse. She confronted him at his car demanding her purse. The subject started his car and drove away. The suspect is described as a male White in his thirties, driving a silver Mitsubishi with Carmax paper plates. The investigation is continuing.

Residential Burglary

June 25 at 6:21 p.m., police were dispatched to a residential burglary that occurred in the 1200 block of South Alta Vista. The victim came home from work and found the apartment had been broken into. Officers responded and cleared the apartment. No suspects were located and the investigation is continuing.

Vehicle Burglary

June 25 at 6:38 p.m., a vehicle burglary was reported in the 500 block of Parkrose. The victim parked his car in his driveway and believes he locked it with the alarm remote, but was unsure. He went inside his home for the evening. When he went to his car the next morning, he noticed some paperwork had been moved, but didn't think anything of it and drove to work. On his way to work, he noticed other items were missing from the vehicle. He called police and notified them of the burglary. When he returned home that evening, police responded and searched the vehicle for evidence. Investigation continuing.

Injury Traffic Collision

June 26 at 7:47, police responded to a traffic collision involving a bicyclist and a vehicle. The bicyclist was riding west on Royal Oaks, approaching Bradbury, when he was struck by a motorist who was turning left onto Bradbury. The motorist told the officer he could not see the bicyclist due to sun in his eyes. The bicyclist appeared to have minor injuries, but was taken to a hospital for exam as a precaution. The driver of the vehicle was cited for failing to clear the intersection before turning.

Injury Traffic Collision

June 26 at 11:49 p.m., an injury traffic collision involving a motorcycle was reported near the intersection of Peck and Live Oak. An Arcadia police officer was northbound on Peck, south of Clark. As he approached the intersection, a motorcycle quickly shot out of Clark to northbound Peck. The motorcycle continued to accelerate to a high rate of speed. As the officer caught up to the motorcycle and started to turn on his lights, the motorcycle locked up, began to skid, and hit an SUV. The motorcyclist was thrown from his motorcycle and hit the street. Monrovia police officers responded to the scene as the accident occurred in the City of Monrovia. The subject was taken to a hospital with head injuries. Investigation continuing.

Tip of the Week

Fireworks Safety

Lighting fireworks at home is not legal in the City of Monrovia. The best way to protect your family is not to use any fireworks at home - period. Attend public fireworks displays, and leave the lighting to the professionals. If not handled properly, fireworks can cause burn and eye injuries in kids and adults. The Fourth of July can be a fun time without injuries if you make sure everyone knows about fireworks safety.

If you are in an area that allows Fireworks, follow these safety

- Make sure fireworks are legal in your area before buying or us- ing them.
- Never allow young children to play with or ignite fireworks.
- Avoid buying fireworks that are packaged in brown paper because this is often a sign that the fireworks were made for professional displays and that they could pose a danger to consumers. • Always have an adult supervise fireworks activities. Parents
- don't realize that young children suffer injuries from sparklers. Sparklers burn at high temperatures hot enough to melt some • Never place any part of your body directly over a fireworks de-
- vice when lighting the fuse. Back up to a safe distance immediately after lighting fireworks.
- Never try to re-light or pick up fireworks that have not ignited
- Never point or throw fireworks at another person. • Keep a bucket of water or a garden hose handy in case of fire or
- other mishap. • Light fireworks one at a time, then move back quickly.
- Never carry fireworks in a pocket or shoot them off in metal or - glass containers.
- After fireworks complete their burning, douse the spent device with plenty of water from a bucket or hose before discarding it to prevent a trash fire.

JOSE RODRIGUEZ' RETIRES - 38 YEARS OF SERVICE

Sierra Madre, CA, He's been a familiar face at the top of Baldwin Avenue and a favorite friend to the kids, parents and staff of St. Rita's for 38 years. But this June, as school came to a close, Jose Rodriguez was bid an emotional farewell from the school and church community to embark on a new chapter in his life - retirement.

St. Rita celebrated the beloved groundskeeper and crossing guard during the last week of school with a surprise tribute and songs from the children at their last week's school picnic and a dinner and party in his honor following Mass on that Saturday.

Rodriguez, originally from Jalisco, Mexico, had attended a seminary high school in Mexico

City and had dreams of being a Catholic priest. Circumstances, however, led him to follow in his older brother's footsteps and immigrate to California in 1968 with hopes of a brighter future. After some time working for the Passionists at the Mater Dolorosa Monastery in Sierra Madre, he began working for St. Rita's School and Church in 1975.

That same year, he married his wife, Aurora, and they bought a home in Pasadena where they still reside. Their four daughters went to St. Rita School and they now have ten grandchildren, some who have also graduated from the school. This year, the family is celebrating the graduation of grandson, Daniel Navarette, and their granddaughter, Delilah Estevez, will begin Kindergarten there in the Fall.

According to his family, he is looking forward to what retirement has in store for him, but will miss the staff, families and, especially the children at St. Rita's.

Principal, Joanne Harabedian said, "We will all dearly miss Jose, whose kindness and hard work have been part of the fabric of our community for many generations. We sincerely wish him the best and some well-deserved rest in his retirement."

Jose Griffin Davies: Rodriguez stands speechless as teachers Barbara Davies and Maryann Griffin lead the school in a singing tribute in his honor. Below with family.

THREE WAYS YOUTH CAN GIVE BACK TO THEIR COMMUNITY

of us lead busy lives that are short on two things: time and money. And while this may pose a challenge when it comes to supporting local nonprofit organizations, there are ways you can give back to the community, no matter what your schedule or financial situation looks like.

Here are three simple ideas for Anyone who is heartened by making a positive contribution, the work of local nonprofit orwhether you're strapped for time, resources or both:

Use Your Work Day

You're probably pretty busy juggling family and work obligations. Chances are you really want to volunteer in your community but may not always have Fifteen organizations will be ingful impact. There are crethe time to do as much as you'd awarded $10,000 each, as deative ways that make it possible the time to do as much as you'd like. This doesn't mean that lending a helping hand is out of reach for you.

Consider starting a Volunteer Day initiative at your workplace, where the whole team offers their time to local nonprofit community service projects one afternoon every few months.

Your boss may love the idea if you remind him or her that such an effort will be great for team building.

Or check with your human resources department about the possibility of paid time off to volunteer in the community. There may be opportunities at your company of which you are not aware.

THE REEL DEAL: by Ben Show WORLD WAR Z

Before seeing the movie, I tried reading the novel the film was based on, but found myself utterly disgusted with the book's unnecessary violence and put it down. After that, my expectations for the movie were very low and I actually did not B want to see this film.

After strange events bring the collapse civilization, humanity tries to fight back against the so-called 'zombies' caused it. Gerry Lane (Brad Pitt) works tirelessly to not only discover where the breakout began but also how he could use their greatest strength against the zombie hordes.

While the movie itself was nothing special, and I'm happy to say not over-the-top violent, the film's strength was its ability to make the events that were happening look very plausible. I found myself at several points in the movie asking Could this really happen?'. That factor, along with the wonderfully gruesome zombie makeup, make this film worth seeing in theaters.

IT'S SUMMERTIME AND THE HEAT IS ON! Is Your Pet Safe From The Sun?

It's almost July, and the heat is on in Southern California, but who doesn't already know that happens every year in our neck of the woods, right? As a long term Sierra Madre resident, I remember years ago when there were few and far-between spots along the streets in my neighborhood where the sun came through and beat down pavement.

Those were the days, but now we are in a new age where folks do tend to cut down shade trees left and right, just to allow for construction of driveways and such. Who knew? Anyway, I am thankful for the trees we still have that continue to provide healthy photosynthesis, aesthetic adornment and kind cooling shade for those of us who still know how to appreciate it. But,

THREE PLANETS IN HABITABLE ZONE OF NEARBY STAR

A team of astronomers has combined new observations of the star Gliese 667C with existing data from the European Southern Observatory's telescope in Chile to reveal a system with at least six planets. A record-breaking three of these planets are "super-Earths" lying in the zone around the star where liquid water could exist, making them possible candidates for the Gliese 667C is a very wellstudied star. With just over one third of the mass of the Sun, it is part of a triple-star system known as Gliese 667 (also referred to as GJ 667), 22 light-years away in the constellation of Scorpius (The Scorpion). This is quite close to us-much closer than the star systems investigated using telescopes such as the planethunting Kepler space telescope.

Viewed from one of these newly found planets, the two other suns would look like a pair of very bright stars visible in the daytime, and at night they would provide as much illumination as the full Moon. The new planets completely fill up the habitable zone of Gliese 667C, as there are no more stable orbits in which a planet could exist at the right distance to it.

The astronomers knew that the star had three planets from previous studies, and they wanted to see whether there were any more. By adding some new observations and revisiting existing data they were able to confirm those three and confidently reveal several more.

Three of these planets are confirmed to be super-Earths planets more massive than Earth, but less massive than planets like Uranus or Neptune—that are within their star's habitable zone, an Compact systems around Sun-like stars have been found to be abundant in the Milky Way. Around such stars, planets orbiting close to the parent star are very hot and are unlikely to be habitable. But this is not true for cooler and dimmer stars such as Gliese 667C. In this case, the habitable zone lies entirely within an orbit the size of Mercury's, much closer than for our Sun. The Gliese 667C system is the first example of a system where such a low-mass star is seen to host several potentially rocky planets in the habitable zone.

The team used data from the UVES spectrograph on ESO's Very Large Telescope in Chile (to determine the properties of the star http://www.eso.org/public/news/eso1328/ accurately); the Carnegie Planet Finder Spectrograph (PFS) at the telescope on Mauna Kea, Hawaii; and extensive previous data from HARPS (the High Accuracy Radial velocity Planet Searcher) at ESO's 3.6-meter telescope in Chile.

The ESO scientist responsible for HARPS, Gaspare Lo Curto, remarks: "This exciting result was largely made possible by the power of HARPS and its associated software, and it also underlines the value of the ESO archive. It is very good to also see several independent research groups exploiting this unique instrument and achieving the ultimate precision."

WITH FOURTH OF JULY JUST A FEW SIZZLING DAYS FROM OUR DOORSTEP, NATIONAL HOT DOG MONTH IS SERVED.

Over seven billion hot dogs will be eaten by Americans between Memorial Day and Labor Day. During the July 4th weekend alone (the Although the exact origins of the Chicago Dog are will torpedo our stomach.

TABLE FOR TWO by Peter Dills thechefknows@yahoo.com

Every year, the typical American will eat an average of 60 hot dogs. The cylinder wrapped to a blanket is consistently one of the countries most beloved and most misunderstood of the comfort

Like most great events in History, there are varying accounts of how it all began and who started it. The history of the Hot Dog is no different. You will find many references throughout history to the origins of a Hot Dog-like thing called a sausage. Here are a handful of the most entertaining accounts of how the Hot Dog was born.

One of the earliest references to the Sausage, appeared in Homer's Odyssey (an ancient Greek tale of adventure and heroism) in 850 BC. Another legend is that the popular sausage (known as "dachshund" or "little-dog" sausage) was created in the late 1600s by Johann Georghehner, a butcher living in Coburg,

The invention of the Hot Dog, is often attributed to the 1004 Levisione Perchase Exposition to the 1904 Louisiana Purchase Exposition. However, similar sausages were made and consumed in Europe, particularly in Germany, as early as 1864, and the earliest example of a hot dog bun dates to New York City in the 1860s. German immigrants appear to have sold hot dogs, along with milk rolls and sauerkraut, from pushcarts in New York City's Bowery during the 1860s. The Hot Dog's association with baseball also predates the 1904 World's Fair. Chris von der Ahe, owner of the St Louis Browns, sold Hot Dogs at his ballpark in the 1880s.

In 1987, the city of Frankfurt celebrated the 500th birthday of the hot dog in that city. It's said that the Frankfurter was developed there in 1484, five years before Christopher Columbus set sail for the new world. However, Vienna, came up with protests against this German celebration. Because the people of Vienna (Wien), Austria, point to the term "wiener" to prove their claim as the birthplace of the hot dog.

Who's Served the First Hot Dog? Also in doubt is who first served the first Hot Dog. Wieners and frankfurters don't become Hot Dogs until someone puts them in a roll or a bun. There are several stories or legends as to how this first happened. Specific people have been credited for supposedly inventing the Hot Dog. Charles Feltman and Antonoine Feuchtwanger were a few

In 1867, Charles Feltman, a German butcher, opened up the first Coney Island hot dog stand in Brooklyn, New York and sold 3,684 dachshund sausages in a roll during his first year in business He is also credited with the idea of the warm bun.

In 1880 a German peddler, Antonoine Feuchtwanger, sold hot sausages in the streets of St. Louis, Missouri. He would supply white gloves with each purchase so that his customers would not burn their hands while eating the sausage. He saw his profits going down because the customers kept taking the gloves and walking off with them. His wife suggested that he put the sausages in a split bun instead. He reportedly asked his brotherin-law, a baker, for help. The baker improvised long soft rolls that fit the meat, thus inventing the Dining w/Dills biggest hot-dog holiday of the year), 155 million not documented, Vienna Beef of Chicago claims the "Chicago-style" Hot Dog was invented by two European immigrants at the Chicago World's Fair and Columbian Exhibition in 1893.

What's in a name? Another story that riles serious hot dog historians is how the term "Hot Dog" came about. Some say the word was coined in 1901 at the New York Polo Grounds on a cold April day. Vendors were hawking hot dogs from portable hot water tanks shouting "They're red hot! Get your dachshund sausages while they're red hot!" A New York Journal sports cartoonist, Tad Dorgan, observed the scene and hastily drew a cartoon of barking dachshund sausages nestled warmly in rolls. Not sure how to spell "dachshund" he simply wrote "hot dog!" The cartoon is said to have been a sensation, thus coining the term "hot dog." However, historians have been unable to find this cartoon despite Darger's promoter. to find this cartoon, despite Dorgan's enormous body of work and his popularity.

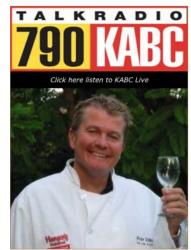

Another legend credits the 1893 - The 1893

Chicago World's Fair, also called the Columbian Exposition, which brought thousands of visitors who consumed large quantities of sausage sold by vendors. People liked this food that was easy to eat, convenient, and inexpensive.

Calendared to that same year, it is claimed that sausages became the standard fare at baseball parks. Some historians claim that Chris Von der Ahe (1851-1913), owner of a St. Louis Bar and the St. Louis Browns major league baseball team, introduced sausages to go with his already popular beer. He was a colorful character himself. A large man who wore loud, checkered clothing, Chris sat in a special box behind third base with a whistle and binoculars. He used the whistle to get the attention of players, or for someone to get him a beer. He purchased the Browns in order to put himself in the limelight and to advertise his

Historians my quarrel with the genesis of the hot dog and I know this appears impossible for some Dodger fans to stomach but the love of the hot dog and baseball did not commence with the Dodgers, but we still have Vin Scully to story tell our games as we enjoy the invention of that most suitable companion, the Hot Dog.

- 2 cups sugar 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon vanilla extract
- 13-ounce can evaporated milk (1-1/2 cups plus 2 tablespoons)
- 1 gallon whole milk
- chipped ice
- rock salt

In a large mixing bowl, beat eggs. Add sugar gradually, stirring constantly. Add salt, vanilla and canned milk. Add about a pint of the fresh milk and

Pour mixture into ice cream freezer can. Add enough of the remainder of the milk to fill can to the middle of the top board of dasher. (If the freezer can has a "fill" line on it, fill no higher than that line.)

Assemble the ice cream freezer. Add alternating layers of chipped ice and rock salt to barrel around freezer can. Crank freezer until ice cream begins to freeze (cranking will become harder as ice cream freezes), adding more ice and salt, as needed. When handle becomes difficult-to-impossible to turn, remove turning mechanism, and carefully remove top from freezer can; remove dasher. Replace top. Cover can with more ice and salt. Cover ice with an old towel, allowing ice cream to "cure" for at least 1 hour. If yours is an electric freezer, follow manufacturer's directions, but the curing step is essential.

THE GOOD LIFE

DEBT COUNSELING PROGRAMS CAN HELP SENIORS WITH FINANCIAL PROBLEMS

Dear Savvy Senior:

What resources can you recommend to help seniors with financial problems? I hate to admit it, but I've fallen behind on my house payments and have accumulated quite a bit of credit card debt over the past few years. Where can we get help? Indebt At 70

Dear Indebt:

There are actually a number of free and low-cost resources available today that can help seniors who are struggling with credit card and/or mortgage debt. Here's where you can turn to for help.

Credit Counseling

To help you get a handle on your credit card debt, a good place to start is at a credit-counseling agency. These are non-profit agencies that offer free financial education and advice on how to handle financial problems.

And if your debt is significant, they can set you up in a debt-management plan (DMP) that allows a counselor to negotiate with your creditors to lower your interest rates and eliminate any late fees and other penalties. The agency will then act as a consolidator, grouping your debts together into one payment that you would make, and distributes those funds to your creditors. Most agencies charge a one-time $30 set-up fee and a monthly maintenance fee of around $20 for a DMP.

To locate a credible agency in your area, use the National Foundation for Credit Counseling website at debtadvice.org or call 800-388-2227.

Do not use a for-profit debt settlement company that claims to settle all your debt, or cut it in half for a fee without counseling. Most of these companies use deceptive practices and will only leave you more in debt then you already are.

Foreclosure Help

If you have fallen behind on your mortgage payments, or if you have already received a letter or phone call about missed payments, you should contact your lender immediately to explain your situation and see if you can work out a payment plan. Be prepared to provide your financial information, such as your monthly income and expenses.

You can also get help from a housing foreclosure avoidance counselor. These are HUD-approved, trained counselors that will work with you, examining your financial situation, and offer guidance on how best to avoid default or foreclosure. They can also represent you in negotiations with your lender if you need them to

To find a government-approved housing counseling agency in your area, use the National Foundation for Credit Counseling website or phone number previously listed. Or for a larger selection of housing counseling options, see the Department of Housing and Urban Development website at hud. gov – click on "Resources" at the top of the page, then on "Foreclosure Avoidance Counseling," or call 800-569-4287.

Another helpful resource you should know about, and one your counselor can help you explore, is the Making Home Affordable program. Created by the Obama Administration in 2009, this program offers struggling homeowners the opportunity to modify or refinance their mortgage to make their monthly payments more affordable.

It also includes the Home Affordable Foreclosure Alternatives Program for those who are interested in a short sale or deed-in-lieu of foreclosure. To learn more about these programs and their eligibility requirements see makinghomeaffordable.gov or call the Homeownership Preservation Foundation's HOPE Hotline at 888-995-4673.

Financial Assistance

You also need to make sure you're not missing out on any financial assistance programs. The National Council on Aging's website (benefitscheckup.org) contains a database of more than 2,000 federal, state and local programs that can help seniors with prescription drug costs, health care, food, utilities, and other basic needs. The site will help you locate programs that you may be eligible for and will show you how to apply.

Send your senior questions to: Savvy Senior, P.O. Box 5443, Norman, OK 73070, or visit SavvySenior.org. Jim Miller is a contributor to the NBC Today show and author of "The Savvy Senior" book.

KATIE Tse .....This and That VINTAGE ENZYMES

Last week I was so excited to get together with my friend and former carpool buddy, Annett (not her real name). Not only is she a great friend, but she's an interesting person. Annett's into Tai Chi, cooking, swimming, art, and gardening. For Annett, gardening isn't just watering petunias or deadheading roses.

gardening isn't just watering petunias or deadheading roses. She's out there lugging around big rocks in her bare feet. Her suggestion to go hiking was a nice alternative to the typical lunch or coffee most friends do when they get together.

Hiking along the paths in the Monrovia Canyon park, Annett started talking about the new health recipes she's tried. There was one that called for a pound of garlic, a pound of ginger, and other things I don't recall. Completed, it has the consistency of applesauce. You take a spoonful or two, taste buds allowing, every day to prevent disease. Then she took a short class in making fruit enzyme. Fruit what? My last encounter with enzymes was in biology at PCC.

Annett explained that to make fruit enzyme, you get a starter (like for sourdough bread), different fruits by the pound, put it all in a large sealed container, and let it age (ferment) at room temperature for about a month. Then you take it in a small glass every night to help you sleep better.

When we finished our hike we returned to her house and cooled off in her kitchen. "Have some of this," she said unscrewing the top off a jar she took from her fridge. "This is the one I told you about." She had told me about many different recipes, so I wasn't sure which one this was. "Is this a good amount for you?" Annett held out a heaping spoonful. "Sure," I said, taking it all at once.

Wow! Equally strong, the garlic and ginger battled each other for flavor dominance. I might not make it myself, but I'll try anything once, and I felt as if that spoonful was enough prevention to last me a while.

"And here's my fruit enzyme," she said, pointing under the dining table. "You can see it bubbling!" I squatted near the massive "enzyme" crock. Layers of plastic wrap covered the opening, fastened tight with rubber bands. The liquid was deep blood red, with what looked like onions and potatoes bobbing around. But Annett assured me it was all fruit. At the top, trails of little bubbles rose to the surface. "Yun" I agreed "It's sure bubbling!"

surface. "Yup," I agreed, "It's sure bubbling!"

"Here," she said, opening her fridge again and bringing out a glass bottle similar to the ones used for taco and oyster sauce. "My friend made this one a few months ago." She listed the fruits her friend used and mentioned that she had added honey. Annett got a tumbler and started pouring me a hefty portion. I waved for her to stop, so she poured some of it into another glass for herself and held hers up to me. "Cheers!"

I must admit it was pretty good, and that's not just because it helped get rid of the garlic-ginger taste in my mouth. "What do you think?" she asked, "Too sweet, huh?"

"No, it's good," I said, taking another sip. It had bits of citrus pulp floating around, and reminded me of a dessert wine, like a late harvest chardonnay. "My mom would like it."

I recalled a raspberry "wine" my mom really liked on one of the few times she's gone wine tasting with us. People talk about some wines as having "legs" that run down the sides of the glass. Mom's favorite didn't run down the sides, it coated them! The wine shop owner explained that it was actually brandy with a lot of raspberry and other sweeteners added in. We asked what vineyard produced it. He laughed, and told us there's no vineyard. A guy in Irwindale makes it using a European style copper pot still. So, it's essentially raspberry moonshine!

"Mine will be ready July third," Annett said. "Well, we'll have to try it then!" I said. "We could

"Mine will be ready July third," Annett said. "Well, we'll have to try it then!" I said. "We could make labels with your name and picture on it." I doubt we'll go that far, but I do look forward to trying Annett's flagship vintage enzyme!

FYI - PREVENTING FALLS INSIDE AND OUTSIDE THE HOME

Falls are one of the leading causes of accidental injury and death among Americans, particularly with children, seniors and the elderly. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), each year 1 in every 3 adults ages 65 and older falls and 2 million are treated in emergency departments for fall-related injuries. Four basic fall prevention tips are recommended by the CDC and the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) is as follows: 1) Get regular exercise: lack of exercise can lead to weak legs and increase the chances of falling. Walking and exercise programs (e.g. Tai Chi) can increase your strength and improve your balance. 2) Ask your physician and pharmacist to review all your medications: Some medications or combinations of medicines can have risky side effects like dizziness or drowsiness that make falling more likely.3) Have your vision checked: Make sure you are seeing clearly by having your eyes examined annually; verify that your glasses and/or contact lenses have the correct prescription strength. 4) Make your home safer by eliminating potential fall_hazards: About 50 percent of all falls happen at home. Conduct a home safety check with a trusted friend or relative to identify potential hazards that need to be addressed, like poor lighting, clutter and electrical cords in walking paths and stairways, worn or loose carpet, etc. Some home improvements or repairs may be necessary to reduce fall risks depending on one's particular situation, like installation of grab bars inside and next to tub or shower and next to toilet, etc. Check the website of the CDC www.cdc.gov as well as AARP at www.aarp.org

FAMILY AFFAIR MUSIC

Don't toss your retro-era stereo with the turntable just yet! Vinyl records are making a comeback as a growing number of recording artists release new songs in the "old school" format along with MP3 and other digital versions. It's surprising to find a local business that carries an inventory of newly-released and hard-to-find retro 45's and LP albums. They also have record players in stock to ensure that customers have the proper tools to spin the sounds after they leave the store.

Anyone who enjoys listening to or creating music will appreciate the rare mix of inventory at Family Affair Music on Myrtle Avenue. Located in the pedestrian-friendly epicenter of Monrovia, this independently-owned establishment is a rarity.

Monrovia native, Don Collins, carries a large inventory of new and used 45's and 33½ LP's (aka "albums"), as well as a smaller selection of 8-Track tapes for music lovers and collectors interested in a nostalgic stroll back in time. He carries a sizeable inventory of used CD's, stating, "CD's of older artists sell well, better than the albums."

A choice of records from the 50's are among an inventory of approximately 15,000, 45's, old and new, with a long list of songs recorded throughout the 60's, 70's and 80's. The majority of the 45's are rock, soul and country. Customers with an interest in retro vinyl albums should come prepared to spend time browsing the collection of some 20,000 pre-owned albums that span the genres of rock, soul, classical, jazz, reggae, movie soundtracks and children's music.

Described as "A Complete Music Store," the store is stocked with everything needed to make your own music. The store has a selection of guitars, violins, harmonicas, a variety of percussion instruments, carrying cases, songbooks, sheet music and more. If you have a collection of old tunes on albums, cassettes or 78's, Family Affair Music is the place to have them transferred to CD.

Collins' family purchased the store from the prior owner in 1972 just as big discount stores were starting to make it very difficult for independent record stores to survive. The name of the store was inspired by Sly & The Family Stone, a popular band that had a string of hit records from the late 60's through the early 70's. "Family Affair" became a top selling single shortly after being released in 1971 on an album entitled, "There's A Riot Goin' On". Forty-one years later, Family Affair Music is still in business and holds the historic distinction as the very first African-American owned retail store on Myrtle Avenue in Monrovia.

This military veteran was stationed in Europe after being drafted into the Army while attending college in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He returned home, delving into careers in real estate and waste management. When asked what drew him to the business of owning a music store, he stated, "It was an opportunity, a heartfelt type of thing," and clearly it's his passion. When people enter the doors, some reminisce when they see actual records that spun on record players when they were children, while more tech-savvy young adults stop by to pick up a new release on vinyl by a current artist. It's not readily apparent that there is also a "reel-to-reel" tape machine inside the store, which was an impressive status symbol for serious music lovers for more than a decade after RCA introduced a version for home use in 1958. With instruments to make music, and an eclectic mix of old and new media to listen to music, this is a destination fit for a visit by old and young, making it a true Family Affair for a broad community of music lovers.

Family Affair Music is located at 510 S. Myrtle in Old Town Monrovia. Hours: 11am-7pm on Mon-Thurs; Fridays from 11am – 9pm (longer hours during Family Festival); Saturdays from 10am – 6pm; Closed Sundays. (626) 358-2280.

Tips of the Trade: Real Estate Revealed

TIME TO SHOW OFF

If you've followed advice given here about sprucing up your home's exterior, well done! Now let's focus attention on the next thing potential buyers will see - the front door and the interior. Now is the time for spring-cleaning and to show off your home's best features.

Repaint that front door and touch up around the entry. Make it warm and welcoming with updated light fixtures at the entrance and foyer. Speaking of entries, check your windows and doors for energy efficiency. If they're not airtight, an investment in new windows and insulation will pay off handsomely and impress buyers.

Freshly repainted walls won't hurt either, and you can achieve a bright, clean look with light yellow or cream on the walls and contrasting white woodwork. Buff up your wood floors, clean your area rugs or carpets, and replace any worn carpeting before your first showing.

Buyers look carefully at bathrooms, so be sure to remove any spots of mildew, replace caulking, and consider a small investment in a new sink and vanity to really make things sparkle.

The icing on the cake is to offer buyers a "home warranty" on the appliances in your house, allowing them a full year of service on anything that happens to go wrong. Your pride of ownership and their peace of mind should combine to produce a sale!

Sharing video clips on social channels is a great way to deliver content that's difficult to put into words. Vine and Instagram are the top mobile apps that allow you to create mini videos that can be shared on sites like Twitter and Facebook. They are easy to make and there is no editing required.

Videos created with Vine have a maximum length of 6 seconds and they loop. Instagram videos offer 15 seconds. Vine and Instagram are also social sites. You can follow others and you can hashtag content, for example, there are a lot of #howto tags on Vine.

Basically, you record as you press the screen on your smart phone. The camera only records while the screen is being pressed so you can take different clips and then the app will put them together.

Here are 5 things to consider with these short videos:

Show behind the scenes. Give your audience a glimpse of what is behind the scenes and a clice of your workplace culture.

2. Have fun and be creative. Figure out a way to bring in the personality of your brand. If you have product, show how it looks in different settings. Share the life-style of the people who use your product. If you provide a service, show how a boring process can be exciting.

Tease. Tease your new products with sneak peaks and coming soon videos.

4. How to process. Show your audience how to use your product and what it does for them (show emotion and satisfaction). End the clip with a downloadable coupon.
5. Report from a live event. Let people know what you are up to at a certain moment in time.

You might report from a launch party of special event so people who are not there can get a feel for it.

HOW CAN YOGA HELD

THE VINYASA

In Yoga, we refer to a Vinyasa as a series of poses put together. It could be 2 to 3 poses or several poses strung together. The idea is to create a natural progression through the poses. Often, we add breath to the poses. Not to say we're not breathing already; but deliberate, slower, complete breath. Full inhale, full exhale. A systematic calming and enlivening happens.

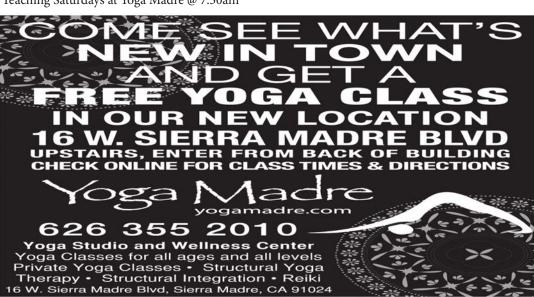

I've been reminded lately of how necessary the vinyasa is-- in yoga & in life. When the times comes, we move forward to the next thing. Taking an opportunity that comes by or more difficult choices, like moving on from a draining situation. Surprise, surprise, even the happy & content need to progress. Nothing will quash contentment like lack of enthusiasm.

Some people do this vinyasa -ing with complete tenacity and even, grace. They make it look easy! Just take that as further inspiration to pursue your next move. Beware, the next indicated "development" may look like its too hard and too much work. Go from the place of truth and fearlessness. We cannot survive, or better yet, thrive on yesterday's practice or successes. Yes, a certain amount of energy from those is "in the bank", but it does run out.

A challenge: Practice the Vinyasa. Try it on the mat. Gather courage and awareness. Then take that same deliberate, calm, and fearless effort with you into real life.

Dance: the movement of the body in response to music... and so much more. A translation of sound to feeling, and to the present. A tangible expression of an intangible world. Personal, unique, precious. A mystical process calling the unknown to be known. Asking us to reveal who we are with utmost honesty. Through dance, we are invited to uncover, discover, and recover our true selves.

We hear the beat and react innately. The rhythm, the lyrics, the tone speak to our soul. Is it true? We can listen and learn things we didn't know before. We find answers to questions we weren't asking. Are we open to listening? Will we allow ourselves the freedom of unbridled movement? What is our body telling us about our spirit? Are we available? We are certainly longing to know about ourselves, though we may not always be aware that we are searching in the first place.

Everyone is invited, but not everyone is willing. To be fully alive requires vulnerability: "Do I even know how to dance? What if people laugh? What if I trip?" Such is the dare of the dance!

Your dance can't be wrong. It was written for you. It was written in you. It's not something you create -- it is something you allow. It moves through you, speaking its passion. A meaning hidden until now. The dreams and desires of the spirit. The path that is right for you. These answers to unasked questions were waiting for the right time, for the right heart. The Real You revealing.

Say yes. Let it be so. You were born to dance.

THE DECLARATION

The Declaration of Independence: A TRANSCRIPTION

IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that manked are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpative for the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.--Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers.

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harrass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures. He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:

For Quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:
For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent:

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury:

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies:

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever. He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us. He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our Brittish brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

The Southern slave states had intently watched the gifted and quick-witted Lincoln challenge the "Little Giant" Stephen Douglas in a series This ever darkening period had passed in of three-hour debates five years earlier. The single issue that defined the contentious battle for the minds of a nation was the question of the age - slavery. Repeatedly and insistently, Lincoln purposefully returned to the Declaration of Independence as a country's lesson plan. The six foot-four Lincoln, born to the Kentucky backwoods, stood amongst a forest of people and eloquently amplified thread-by-thread, a divine tapestry of truth. reason and assurance that even the proud election, Lincoln had won the national debate Jefferson would have admired the storytelling

It was an interval that witnessed the defection of the South from the United States. Historians unanimously concur that President James Buchanan's lack of effort remember they died in a glory above all to resist the southern succession in the period before Lincoln was seated to power, was the greatest mistake of any Presidency. Like Lincoln, James Buchanan was a lawyer, and both agreed that the south had committed an illegal act in succession. Lincoln stood completely enemy. The bodies of blue and gray swam opposed to that view, and argued that the implied powers of the Constitution allowed the President extreme license in the reunification of the nation.

This year, as we mark the 150th Anniversary of the Gettysburg battle, it must be known that this was not the first battle of the Civil War, nor Lincoln had won a necessary victory, symbol of an extreme meter of sacrifice and measure of men who departed this imperfect realm, to register with God as heroes. The sense of an Abraham Lincoln struggled with the right and wrong of that world. Lincoln's defense of Jefferson's message established him as the noble narrator of the Declaration of Independence, but in the collected wisdom of these two men, and their Executive seats CraigHakola@aol.com of power, they remained helpless to stop the country from division.

The Nation's final hope for re-unification was given to the common and the courageous. The responsibility was claimed by boys that had never known a razor, or savored a single kiss. The war would be settled by men that had left their worried wives and children behind, and the issue would be adjudicated by the wise souls that knew what the Declaration of Independence meant to the world. So it is to them we give praise, the legions of the brave who God has glorified as heroes.

Sierra Madre's 8U Softball All Stars Take SoCal ASA Community By Storm

Sleepy little Sierra Madre has made a name for itself in the Southern California softball community by its 8 and 9 year old All Stars. Historically known as a team to beat, Sierra Madre is generally selected by tournament hosts for pool play and expectations are that parents can schedule family vacations by late June. Not this year.

For the first time ever, Sierra Madre's 8U Gold All Star team, aptly named Gold Lightning due to weather conditions during an early season practice, has taken home championships from two of five softball tournaments in no walks. which it competed, while getting to the semi-finals in others. Several weeks ago, Sierra Madre's Gold Lightning took home impressive first place hardware from the Carlsbad Seabreeze Tournament after winning five games in single elimination. This weekend, Sierra Madre clinched the 2013 Southern California ASA 8U All Star Northern B District Championship and qualified to advance to the Southern California All Star B State Championships July 5-7 in Lancaster.

THE SECRET

By Rhonda Byrne

I recall that the mention of enlightenment was given notice from my previous review of "Maya's Notebook", and now that mention will be brought up again this time in "The Secret". "The Secret" by Rhonda Byrne is not just enlightening, but also compelling, thought-provoking, and when the principles are applied with a positive state of mind, actually very helpful.

Copyrighted in 2006, having a film adaptation, and receiving praise from Publishers Weekly, "The Secret" deviates away from typical self-help books and focuses instead on the law of attraction. Now you may be skeptical from this point, but Rhonda Byrne, along with the many other contributors who add in their own words, boldly and wonderfully explains how the law of attraction can help us throughout and as a result, what we put out into the world, we attract in the same sense. Byrne points out how when we think in a certain way, our thoughts act as magnets and it comes to us; however, a crucial aspect that is also brought into play is our state of mind. Depending on if we are in a positive or negative mind frame completely changes the outcome of what we attract and even when it is attracted to us. Another factor that Byrne also stresses is that the law of attraction also takes time; when immediate results are not given, discouragement can take place really quickly. In turn, when we practice the law of attraction consistently, one will be surprised and pleased when the results we wanted are provided to us in the end, which reinforces are positive thinking and will continue to bring what we attract out of life.

Basically, we are all magnets in one form or other,

Rhonda Byrne reveals basically one of the great secrets of life with "The Secret" and shows how a gradual paradigm shift of our perspectives can have a lasting impact throughout the Globe-trotting Eric Snowden is still in the news; he now says he purposefully sought employment with contractor Booz Allen Hamilton specifically to obtain the highly classified information he sought to disclose. He was confident it wouldn't be hard to pull off; not as if he were working directly for the NSA or some other government agency. That confidence itself should cause concern over outsourcing our nation's security.

There was news of President Obama selecting a "Republican, ex-Bush official" for an important post. Early this year there was similar news as the president nominated former Republican Sen. Chuck Hagel (NE) to be the first enlistee, NCO combat veteran to serve as Secretary of Defense.

Bush official James Comey to be FBI Director. In the Snowden story, there's conflict between protecting our security through intelligencegathering and protecting our rights through the Constitution. James Comey was a central figure in one of the most dramatic personnel incidents of the Bush Administration, involving this very conflict between rights and security. He took actions I'd call "heroic" - not least because there wasn't any apparent consideration on his part of their March 12. "I couldn't stay, if the administration publicity value.

Raised in New Jersey, James Comey helped prosecute the Gambino crime family from the U.S. Attorney's office in New York. Working out of Richmond, Virginia, he was the lead prosecutor in the 1996 Khobar Towers terrorist bombing, bringing indictments against a dozen al-Qaeda-affiliated militants. He joined the Bush nation's top law enforcement officers; Atty. Gen. Administration as Deputy Attorney General in

He insisted the Chief Executive's "inherent authority" under our Constitution allowed him to ignore it.

As cover, the administration sought periodic approval of its warrantless surveillance program from its appointees at the Justice Dept. As James Comey testified before Congress, a review in early 2004 by the Dept.'s Office of Legal Counsel raised 'concerns as to our ability to certify its legality." Atty. Gen. John Ashcroft was briefed on March 4 and agreed that changes would have to be made. On his way home that night around 8PM, Comey received a call from Ashcroft's chief of staff, who'd received a frantic call from Ashcroft's wife telling him that Bush's chief of staff Andrew Card and White House Counsel Alberto Gonzales were on their way to the hospital. Comey ordered his driver to turn the car around and raced to the hospital himself, managing to get there before Card and Gonzales.

As Comey testified, "I was concerned that, given how ill I knew the attorney general was, that there might be an effort to ask him to overrule me when he was in no condition to do that." FBI Director Robert Mueller himself was on the way to the hospital, and ordered Ashcroft's security detail not to allow Card and Gonzales to eject Comey from the hospital room.

James Comey demonstrated his conviction that partisanship and ideological agendas are antithetical to defending our rights under the Constitution (a good attribute for a Director of the FBI). By his appointments, President Obama has demonstrated he shares this conviction. Meanwhile, certain justices of the Supreme Court have clearly demonstrated that they don't.

WORLD WAR Z

Directed by: Written by:

Mark Forster Matthew Michael Carnahan and Drew Goddard & Damon Lindelof

In 2007, a biding war with Leonardo DiCaprio's Appian Way production company transpired as Brad Pitt's Plan B company secured the rights to Max Brook's 2006 novel, "World War Z." Plagued with script rewrites, major setbacks, and reshoots, Brad Pitt's summer blockbuster was destined to be a massive failure. While it's far from the flop that it was shaping up to be, this loosely adapted version of the novel it shares the same name with doesn't have much heart amongst the bloodshed.

The novel itself is divided into separate individual accounts of a post zombie invasion, while the film is purely centered on Gerry Lane (Pitt), a retired U.N. employee who must travel the world to find Release Date: June 21st, 2013 a way to bring to an end this "zombie" endemic.

Based on the novel by Max Brooks Rated PG-13 for intense frightening zombie sequences, violence and disturbing images

I believe that the source material would have benefited a lot more with a mini-series or one complete season that spans all the elements of the book instead of Hollywood focusing on one, contained, traditional plotline. However, the audience was delivered an easy, disposable, textbook, typical blockbuster that could have been much worse I admit, but at the same token, so much greater in the end.

To be clear, there's nothing terribly wrong with "World War Z." The major problem was how the film started shooting without an exact ending. Paramount brought in screenwriter Damon Lindelof to help write the third act, but since he was busy messing up another script I'm sure, they got another hot writer named Drew Goddard. Lindelof, in my opinion, was responsible for butchering the original "Prometheus" script last year making it the biggest disappointment of 2012. What really irked me in "World War Z" was the faux resolution. I felt cheated with the ending that proves this film is merely the first installment of a two-part series or perhaps a trilogy. I much rather would have favored a completely self-contained story than receiving one that purely ends up being a two-hour trailer for the next installment of something greater years from now. In addition, with the exception of Gerry Lane, our protagonist, you don't get a feel for anyone else in this movie. Not one of the principal players makes a strong impact. Characters like the one David Morse plays feels terribly wasted. He's an ex-CIA operative imprisoned in South Korea for treason. He aids Pitt's character in telling him to go to Jerusalem where they may have had prior information leading up to the outbreak. Unfortunately, "World War Z" lacks a true spirit in this human story that's somewhere buried under the epic zombie tale.

As far as the direction goes, Mark Forster does a competent job with the film. However, with the exception of some jolts here and there as well as keeping up a moderately swift pace, nothing was eye popping in regard to its visuals. In fact, the color palette was sort of dull and ordinary. With its quick edits and sharp cuts, some of the action became muddled along the way. And did I mention this film is PG-13? Don't expect much of any blood and gore as "World War Z" is more of a thriller in vein of "Contagion" than a survival horror movie like the far more superior "28 Days Later." Despite some bad decisions made by the creative team, "World War Z" can be enjoyable and it rarely bores. However, nothing about it truly stands out.

When all is said and done, we're left with a wickedly ordinary film that squanders away all its intrinsic potential in being the extraordinary movie most of us film enthusiasts were hoping Crazy is captivating. Shameless is fascinating. And our politics is a tween Twitter war.

On the Daily Show, John Oliver, pinch-hitting for Jon Stewart over the summer, covered Sarah Palin's triumphant return to Fox News after a fivemonth recess. "I think I've just realized something," said the fill-in host. "This is exactly what she wants. Just because I walked into a turd supermarket doesn't mean I have to buy anything."

We can just ignore her, assured Oliver.

Yes we can. What do you think of what Sarah Palin thinks of what the President is thinking? Who cares?

To paraphrase Eleanor Roosevelt: Great minds discuss ideas; Average minds discuss events; Small minds discuss what people who make money from saying crazy things say.

I stand with John. And I stand with Nancy.

Now, I'm aware "Pelosi" is a four-letter word in some parts of the country. Appalachian trail-nee South Carolina Governor Mark Sanford debated a life-size cutout of her when he was running for his old seat in Congress this past April. Instead of sparring with his opponent he enlarged a photo of the first female Speaker of the House and made a speech. He won the seat.

But Pelosi is right on this one.

What do people who marginalize gays think of these Supreme Court rulings? Who cares?

THE RICH VS. THE VIRTUOUS

articles written over the past five and a half years, I realize that I have been chronicling long-standing It is the battle between those I call the virtuous and those I call the rich. I picture the virtuous as those who think like me. These folk claim they are not intentions of our Founding Fathers. How interested in individual material wealth; instead they care for the future of all mankind. Their (our) motto might well be that if an economic system does not work satisfactorily for everybody then it doesn't work decently for anybody.

The opposite point of view was asserted yesterday on the Daily Show, now without John Stewart. An American rich person asserted that the American economic system, because of its limited governmental regulation, was the greatest economic system ever developed by man. He explained that in the United States great profits could be made, no matter the present economic conditions, provided that an investor was properly educated and prepared. In the United States we are fortunate that there is no autocratic tyrant siphoning off wealth for his own benefit. Additionally Americans are forever fortunate that Socialist do-gooders like Elizabeth Warren are now powerless to divert accumulated wealth from those who manifest the hard-work and creativity to gain their precious bounty. The Elizabeth Warrens of the world worry only about the undeserving poor, the lazy untalented, mediocre humans that I guess are typical of 99% of the population. The true name of the game in America is SELFISHNESS. As Michael Douglas told us in his Academy Award Winning Performance, "Greed is

I wonder how many of my vast number of readers are familiar with the name Elizabeth Warren. She was the force behind the creation of the Consumer Protection Agency and was such a force that the Republicans prevented our President from appointing her as Director. Someone else was appointed and she fooled everyone by running for and capturing the Senate Seat from Massachusetts. She is my hopedfor candidate for President of the United States in 2016.

To me Elizabeth Warren is the antidote to our present debased and cynical society in which money is the standard of all other things and the best things will fall to the share of the worst men. One of my heroes, Thomas Paine, the author of the pamphlet Common Sense, highly influential in the creation of the American Revolution, natures uncorrupted by the corporate wrote in 1776 that this Revolution is the pitchmen hired by the rich. "Birthday of a new world". He wrote that

Looking over my it "is in our power to begin the world over again," to establish a government to the perfectibility of man. I believe Thomas Jefferson and the contributors to the Declaration of Independence incorporated this idea in their guarantees of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness to ALL inhabitants of the soon to be created independent nation.

Today it is fashionable to denigrate the could they dare to write of universal rights, liberties, and the pursuit of happiness when the nation they were creating allowed only voting rights to a small population of land-owning adults and prohibited other males, all females, and all slaves (yes slavery was a legalized part of the foundation of the United States) from participating as voters. In whose interests were the founding father's acting—the rich or the virtuous?

The debate still rages as is evidenced by today's Supreme Court Ruling which strikes down key parts of the Voting Rights Act. It is this very Act that attempted to remedy the unfairness allowed to exist from the very founding of our Nation. I believe Justice Roberts' decision (I haven't seen it) alludes to the fact that there is no evidence that voter discrimination continues to exist in the specifically named mainly Southern States. C'mon now! It is beyond any doubt that these United States have increasingly become controlled by interests not dedicated to the Common Welfare but rather dedicated to the further accumulation of their own wealth. The only real weapon against these controlling individuals, the Super-super rich, is the voting power constitutionally guaranteed to the rest of us. We must try and protect

In conclusion, what Elizabeth Warren represents to me is not just the protection of certain enumerated rights but rather she is the projection of the envisioning of a utopian future that dwells on the perfection of the self rather than the protection of economic interests of the corporate managers. I write this article somewhat motivated by the advice that I have received from helpful people who were concerned about the knee injury that I described in my last article. There is no doubt in my mind that people, strangers, want to be helpful to one another. We care about each other and our governmental system should be based upon this universal caring and assist us in living lives of contribution rather than accumulation.

I suggest that many of us in our pursuit of happiness would be better off forfeiting possessions in exchange for feelings of brotherhood congruent with our true

definition of that word and I usually take things as they come.

My past week, however, was an open commentary on "Murphy's Law." Offhand I am not quite sure who come up with this concept, but they must have had a week somewhat like my week this past week.

If I had it within me, I would establish "Snyder's Law" which simply stated means, what can go right will go right. Then all would be right with the world. Well, except for those who are lefthanded.

It all started Monday morning when I had an early morning meeting. I meant to set my alarm clock for 6 AM but for some reason I set it for 6 PM and overslept. Have you ever noticed when you are 15 minutes late in the morning the day ends up being 90 minutes late? Do not ask me how that happens. Ask Murphy.

În the mail, I got a notice from the bank that I was overdrawn and they were charging me an insufficient fund fee. Well, I was furious. After all, I know how to add and subtract and I know how to take care of my bank account. I was about ready to call them and give them a piece of my mind when I noticed, how it happened I will never know, I forgot to include two checks I had written last week. I hate when that happens. My whole checkbook is now screwed up. I think it might be easier for me just to close my account and start all over again.

It was Tuesday but I had to go across town and endure all that traffic. It is not my favorite place to drive, I will tell you right now. Just as I turned onto a street, my engine sputtered a little bit. Then, much to my chagrin, the engine stopped completely. I hate when that happens.

I turned the key several times and then, I do not know why I did it, but I glanced at the gas gauge and the arrow was pointing way beyond the E. My gas tank was about as empty as my bank account. It is bad to run out of gas, but the worst thing for me about running out of gas is calling the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage and asking her for help. I would walk 100 miles not to tell her I am out of gas.

However, for the next six months I am Jesus Christ. reminded and reminded

I am not what to put gas in my tank.

Thursday also had its issues. My wife superstitious wanted me to go to the store and pick up [Knock something and for some reason, I cannot on wood.] I am a remember it now, I used her car. Maybe realist in a modified it was because I did not want to run out of gas!

I got to the store, paid for my purchase, came out and tried finding my truck. I walked up and down and my truck was nowhere in sight. The only thing I could think of at the time was that somebody had stolen my truck.

I thought about calling the police, and then I thought better and decided I would call my wife first. You know what it is like when your wife hears something secondhand. And so I called her.

"I can't find my truck," I said trying to keep my voice as calm as possible not to get her upset, "I think somebody stole it. Should I call the police?"

Silence on the phone. Then I heard her say in a very calm voice, "Whoever stole your truck parked it in our driveway."

I then remembered I was driving her

I tried to chuckle within but I knew that this incident would hang in our house for months to come and I have

Mr. Murphy to thank for that. It was such a horrific week and I was so deep in trouble with my Better Half, I decided to take her out Friday night for a nice meal on the town. I took her to her favorite restaurant and we ordered our supper, then set back and kind of sighed the week away. Maybe all that could go wrong has gone wrong and the week was about to turn around.

We chatted; I tried to skew the conversation away from running out of gas and misplacing my truck. Then the waitress came with our meal. I was ready to settle down, enjoy a scrumptious meal and end the week on a happy note.

The waitress set my wife's plate in front of her and she smiled. Then the waitress set my plate in front of me and I freaked out. For some reason the waitress got my order mixed up with somebody else's order and right in the middle of my plate was a pile of broccoli.

The only hope I have is that it cannot get any worse than this. I think David, the psalmist, understood this when he wrote, "... weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning" (Psalm 30:5 KJV).

As bad as it gets, as a Christian I have She always comes and bails me out. some great things to look forward to in

HAIL Hamilton My Turn ALOHA TO MY

Yes, you heard me right; I'm Aloha life-style. retiring. My wife is already receiving retired. earlv retirement disability benefits. This means we can ride off into the sunset together, like Roy and Dale. Yet the thought bejeezus out of me.

Like so many other middleclass Americans, we have not put nearly enough aside for our golden years. It's not that we didn't want to but with three kids, four pets, two cars, and a mortgage two teachers can barely make ends meet from paycheck to paycheck, much less squirrel away the kind of dough it takes to live high on the hog in retirement.

What little cash we did stash away in my 403(b) retirement thoroughly accounts was trashed in the 2008 stock market crash. They lost more it is one of the most progressive than one-third of their pre-cash value in a weekend. It was like watching our money disappear into a black hole. It was gone... just gone...

Teachers are like cops and firemen with most their life saving tied up in the equity of their homes and their pensions. That's why so many of them sell their houses and move away to places like Oregon, Nevada, and New Mexico where their retirement dollars go a lot and friends, especially from further than here in Southern California.

For awhile we considered Astoria, Oregon at the mouth of the Columbia River. Housing is more than reasonable for an attractive home overlooking some of the most beautiful pine covered coastline north of New Zealand. Of course all that green means it rains a lot and it does -- an average of 67 inches a year! But for pure rugged beauty it's hard to beat Oregon's North Coast.

After much thought, however, we have decided to retire to the Big Island of Hawaii where it also rains a lot, but where the rain is much warmer. Although the price of certain necessities, like gasoline and electricity are higher in Hawaii, prices Hawaii of course!" When I at discount stores like Costco and Target are about the same as they are here. We feel any RETIREMENT FEARS extra costs are more than offset going by the benefits Hawaii offers to be my with its year-round tropical weather, affordable housing, teaching.

Still, the fear of retiring remains even without car payments and a mortgage. Future declining income due to inflation is a scary prospect Roy and Dale. Yet the thought for anyone retiring but it retiring still scares the holy is nothing new. We figure our incomes as teachers, as measured by buying power, have been declining for years; indeed, by our calculations we make less now than when we started teaching! The trick in retirement will be keeping our overhead in line with inflation. It will be a difficult task but not an impossible one.

Health care is another worry. To what extent will our lifetime employee coverage fill in the gaps left in our Medicare coverage? How much will we still have to pay? Hawaii should be praised in this respect since states in the Union when it comes to the supplemental health and dental care for its senior citizens (Did I say "senior citizens"?).

One thing we definitely don't have to worry about are family and friends coming to visit. When my wife and I were discussing whether Astoria or Hawaii was best for us, my wife voiced her concern about being isolated from family our new granddaughter. So I conducted a little survey.

Hawaii won hands down. All those surveyed agreed it's much easier to fly to Kona or Hilo than fly to Portland, and then drive another two hours to Astoria. Everyone also agreed Hawaii is much more vacation-friendly than Astoria. Apparently sunning on the beach, snorkeling, surfing, hiking, or golfing in yearround tropical Hawaii is much more appealing than what's available along the chilly North Coast of Oregon.

When I asked my daughter about whether she'd rather visit us in Astoria or Hawaii she snapped, "Are you kidding Dad... That's a no-brainer... asked my oldest son he got right to the point, "When are WE leaving?'
