SUMMARY OF THE COUNTY ORDER: (From Staff Report)

During a State of Emergency, California law empowers the County of Los Angeles Health Officer (Health Officer) to take measures necessary to protect the public from the spread of the Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) within the County of Los Angeles. In accordance with the Centers for Disease Control's (CDC) Interim Guidance for Large Events and Mass Gatherings (March 15, 2020); the California Department of Public Health's Mass Gathering Guidance (March 15, 2020), the Health Officer is ordering significant protective measures to stem or slow the spread of COVID-19 within the greater Los Angeles community.

Because of the rapid spread of COVID-19 and the need to protect the most vulnerable members of our community, this Order prohibits all indoor public and private gatherings the public's health.

SMPD Chief Rodrick Armalin

Rodrick Armalin has been selected to serve as the next Chief of Police for the City of Sierra Madre. Chief Armalin comes to Sierra Madre with over 30 years experience law enforcement with the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department. Armalin's e x t e n s i v e background is community oriented policing, e m e r g e n c y management and preparedness, event response, and homelessness.

City Manager Gabriel Engeland stated "we are very excited for Chief Armalin to join our team. He brings incredible experience to the City, is community focused, and is committed to developing the members of the Police Department."

Armalin's most current position with Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department was as Unit Commander of the College Bureau where he managed 176 personnel who provided all law enforcement services to nine community colleges that make up the largest community college district in the nation. After serving in the United States Air Force, Armalin joined the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department and graduated top of his police academy class, receiving the Department's prestigious Honor Recruit Award.

From a small town in Louisiana, and primarily reared in Los Angeles, when asked why he chose law enforcement as a career, he shared his experiences as an impressionable young man and his admiration for the police officers in his LA neighborhood.

He is an advocate of 'open dialogue and is looking forward to serving the residents of Sierra Madre. Chief Armalin said, "I am extremely excited about working with the men and women of Sierra Madre Police Department, and eagerly anticipating meeting and becoming a member of this wonderful community!

Armalin is filling the position left vacant by Interim Police Chief Jim Hunt, who has been in place since April 2019.

In addition to the appointment of Police Chief, the City has also promoted Sergeant Henry Amos to the rank of Police Captain. Amos' career with the agency began as a Reserve Officer. In 2002 he was hired as a full-time police officer and promoted Amos joined Sierra Madre Police Department he has worked as a Field Training Officer, Police Detective, and Acting Lieutenant. Captain Amos' promotion is immediate. City Manager Engeland said "Captain Amos has done exceptional work for the City and Sierra Madre Police Department

Captain Amos said "I accept my new position with great pride and dedication to the residents and businesses of Sierra Madre. I look forward to working with Chief Armalin in further developing the department and working closely with the community."

Both Armalin and Amos are making history as the first African Americans to hold their respective positions in Sierra Madre.

As the termination of any employee is confidential matter, given Mrs. Harabedian's history with the school and ties to the community, supporters are livid at her termination and in the way it was handled.

During the week of March 9th, when word leaked out of Baker's intention not to renew the principal's contract, teachers and staff and students displayed support for Mrs. Harabedian by posting banners and red ribbons at the school. Such demonstrations were said to have been met with disdain by Fr. Baker, and according to one staff member, Baker refused to meet with them regarding their concerns. It has also been said by numerous sources that he accused Harabedian orchestrating the There activities. are currently websites online in support of dismissed principal.

Mrs. Harabedian, in a brief interview with the paper on Friday, indicated when asked that she had "absolutely nothing" to do with the demonstration and other displays of support. She noted that her only goal has always been to 'satisfy the Archdiocese and parents by providing students with innovative approaches to academic excellence.

Supporters say she is reminds parents and staff "every day that we are here for the kids." So their question is, "why the termination and why did you handle it in such a humiliating manner at such a stressful time for all?'

Coincidentally perhaps, the termination was made on the same day that Archbiship Gomez announced the Suspension of Masses for the Church amid the COVID-19 Pandemic and after Mrs. Harabedian informed parents of the schools closure on the 16th and that the newly developed plan for Home Study would begin on March 17th. Supporters as well as those who don't have a particular interest at all are asking, 'Why now?' Joanne Harabedian was honored as the San Gabriel Valley Woman of Distinction in 2018 among many other honors over the years. She is an alumni of Alverno Heights Academy and also mother of former Sierra Madre Mayor John Harabedian, a St Rita School alumni.

WALKING SIERRA MADRE - The Social Side

by Deanne Davis

As the Wistaria Festival has been postponed, much to everyone's dismay, I thought I would show you the beautiful picture of wistaria I took up on Grandview, just a block or two from Santa Anita last week. The day was exquisite, warm, sunny and it was such a joy to see this lovely rich purple flower in bloom again.

We've all seen the empty shelves in the markets and every sort of big box store and, for some reason, toilet paper is the most sought-after commodity in the universe at this moment. Water is up there, sort of a distant third, but toilet paper is worth its weight in gold at the moment. Visiting our local Target yesterday, we found a line of people with their carts winding through several aisles to receive a four pack of whatever brand was available. We've all seen the pictures on Facebook of grocery carts piled to the sky with TP and paper towels... followed by another cart piled high with cases of beer. Priorities! Those of us whose children are suddenly and unexpectedly home with us for a couple of weeks as the schools are closed are stocking up on wine and chocolate. Again, priorities!

Wondering how many pandemics the world has survived, I visited Wikipedia, just for fun, and discovered that there have been a bunch of them, featuring typhus, influenza (a number of times) cholera and, of course, that ever-popular favorite: Bubonic Plague. However, between 1918-1920 the Spanish flu caused a whole lot of damage. Did you know that more people were hospitalized in World War I from the Spanish flu epidemic than from war wounds? Estimates of the fatalities range from 20 to 40 million worldwide.

And now, COVID-19 stalks among us creating havoc and mayhem. So far, the worst thing among those I know, is boredom as one can't go anywhere. Sports have been cancelled and I'm grateful for Netflix, Amazon Prime and all the series shows I've taped and not watched. Of course, the Food Network is always there with "Beat Bobby Flay" and "Restaurant Impossible."

Thinking about our current situation where the panic may possibly be worse than the problem, the following scenario occurred to me so thought I'd share it with you, dear friends and neighbors...it could happen and maybe it already has! All characters are purely fictionalized.

The Black Market

Debbie Lynn Cooper, mother of three fairly well-behaved children: Gini, Tom and Violet, looked obsessively at the rearview mirror of her SUV, hoping no one was following her. What has happened to me? I should be at Bible Study. I'm always at Bible Study on Tuesday morning. Everyone is going to be talking about me. A voice from the back of the car, shrill and penetrating, asked, "Mommy! Where are we going?" Debbie Lynn, checking the mirror again said, "Don't worry, sweetheart, we're just going to meet some people." The same shrill voice, now adding just a small note of whine, demanded, "What people? Why?" Another penetrating little voice chimed in, "I want to go home." And then just a little louder, "I want to go home NOW!" Debbie Lynn's head, already throbbing, throbbed harder as the last little voice began to sob and shriek, "Mommy! I have to go potty!" Of course you do, Gini, and that's what got us here in the first place.

Debbie Lynn was in the alley behind the old Dollar Store, now closed for over a year, boarded up, padlocked and most probably rat-infested, but Debbie Lynn had heard that there were people behind there who had exactly what she needed. Yes, Debbie Lynn was an addict, desperately hunting down a new supplier, a new source, a new dealer. All three of the shrill little voices in the back of the car were raised in complaint and nearing tantrum volume. Debbie Lynn resisted the urge to yell, "Shut Up!" at them and simply said, "We're almost there, we'll only be a few minutes then we can go get a donut. Wouldn't you like that? A nice jelly donut?" What's happened to me, she agonized, we don't Just ahead of Debbie Lynn's SUV was a U-Haul truck with a guy standing outside the driver's door, looking like he was ready to bolt. Debbie Lynn slammed on her brakes and, grabbing her wallet, leaped out of her car. Just as he jumped in the truck, she raced up to the door crying, 'Wait! Wait!" The U-Haul was already starting to roll but Debbie Lynn, with the strength of the frantic, desperate addict that she was, held on to the door handle and was prepared to be dragged along with the truck.

'Lady!" the driver said. "All right! I'm stopping!" Weeping tears of gratitude, Debbie Lynn let go of the door handle and, grabbing the driver's arm, sobbed out, "You've got to help me! You're my last hope! Please! Please, sell me some toilet paper! We can't go any longer without it. I don't care what it costs, you've got to help me!"

Money changed hands, as did a case of offbrand TP. Debbie Lynn took the children to Dunkin' Donuts where they all used the potty and everyone did, indeed, get a donut and some chocolate milk. Shaken to the core, Debbie Lynn drove straight home, turned on Spongebob Square Pants for the children and poured some Chardonnay into a coffee cup for herself. After all, it's not every day that a nice housewife tackles the Black Market and lives to tell about it.

Wash your hands, dear friends, drink lots of water, stay home and, hopefully, the world will return to normal and we'll find potatoes, bread, milk and TP on the shelves at our markets again.

A particular Bible verse has come to my mind over and over again: 2 Chronicles 7:13-15: "If I close the sky so there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send a plague among My people, and My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, forgive their sin, and heal their land."

THE SIERRA MADRE PUBLIC LIBRARY BEGINS NEW CHECK-OUT SYSTEM IN RE-SPONSE TO COVID-19 CLOSURE.

In an effort to continue supporting our patrons during this difficult time, the Sierra Madre Public Library will offer a single, over the phone check-out per patron. To the extent to which we can, a Library Staff Member will take patron requests for materials over the phone, and materials will be checked out to the member's card and prepared for pick up. Upon arriving at the Library, patrons will call from a designated waiting area outside of the building, and a staff member will check their identification and transfer materials to them, in keeping with social distancing standards.

We at the Sierra Madre Public Library believe that everyone has the right to access materials and information; however, this opportunity will be revoked out of a greater concern for the Sierra Madre Community and City Staff, should the need arise.

Thank you for your patience as we continue to work together in service of our community.

Second COVID-19 Case in Pasadena

The City of Pasadena Public Health Department (PPHD) has confirmed Monday a second case of novel coronavirus disease (COVID-19) in a Pasadena resident. The details of the case were still under investigation Friday.

PPHD is following up directly with those who have had close contact with this individual and may be at risk for COVID-19 infection. Close contacts are informed on how to assess and monitor for signs and symptoms of illness and are quarantined.

"We urge the community to follow public health guidance and take measures to maximize social distancing," said Dr. Ying-Ying Goh, PPHD Director and Health Officer. "Your actions can help protect yourself from COVID-19, reduce the spread of illness among your family and friends, and preserve our healthcare resources for everyone. We will keep the community informed of new cases and changes in guidance as the situation evolves."

If you have recently returned from an area with ongoing COVID-19 infections, follow public health guidance and monitor your health. Call your healthcare providers and inform them about your travel history if you need care. For the latest info on COVID-19, visit: cdc.gov.

Mayor Makes Plea to the Community

City Council Approves COVID-19 Relief Measures

Pasadena Mayor Terry Tornek (pictured left) made his first appearance Thursday night after traveling back from a trip to Pasadena's sister city, Dakar-Plateau, Senegal in Africa. Tornek called the new "Safer at Home Order," (see story right) disruptive, onerous, draconian but necessary.

"I ask for everyone's cooperation and I ask everyone's good will." he said. "Once again, I would emphasize that if you can think about your neighbor, if you have a senior that you think may have difficulty with shopping, ask them if you can get them anything when you go to the market... Let's reinsatute the since of community we have in California, make sure we lookout for each other and I'm confident that with everyone pulling in the same direction that we can beat this thing."

Tornek spoke during a COVID-19 press conference for Los Angeles County that included Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti, Long Beach Mayor Robert Garcia (pictured right) and L.A. County Supervisor Kathryn Barger. The event was covered nationwide. In Related News. The Pasadena city council held a special meeting, Tuesday, to receive an update on the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic from Pasadena Public Health Director, Dr. Ying-Ying Goh, ratify the recent Local State of Emergency Declaration, and consider relief measures to reduce the economic impacts on residents and businesses.

Council approved the following actions during the meeting:

1. Suspension of any new late fees and penalties for Cityprovided services, including water, power and garbage

A WORD FROM THE PASADENA HUMANE SOCIETY

Dear Friends,

With the developing news regarding coronavirus COVID-19, I wanted to take a moment to share how Pasadena Humane Society & SPCA is addressing the concern at our shelter, as well as our community programming and events.

We are taking all the necessary steps to protect the health and well-being of the animals in our care, our staff and the community we serve by modifying our services. At this time, our Adoptions Center will be closed to the public - but if you are interested in adopting a pet you have seen on our website, we will be open by appointment only during our normal business hours.

We have also temporarily suspended the following activities:

Community outreach programs (including our mobile outreach events). If you are a current event registrant, we will communicate with you directly regarding any changes, so please watch your email. Updates will also be shared on our social media pages and website.

Humane Education activities which include our Kids Club, Animal Adventure Workshops, Scout Sundays, group tours, Sunday Morning Helpers, and Barks and Books program.

Public spay/neuter and vaccine clinics

Dog training classes

Pet Boarding, except in case of emergency.
The following services will also be available by appointment only:

Reclaiming your lost pet AND Relinquishing your pet Please limit calls to our Field Services Department to emergencies only.

There have also been questions about whether pets can get sick from COVID-19 or if they can make us sick. According to the Centers for Disease Control and the World Health Organization, there is no evidence that companion ani-mals such as cats and dogs have been infected or could spread the virus that causes COVID-19.

While animals may not be at risk from this disease, we urge all pet owners to have plans for how to care for their animals in case of emergency. COVID-19 is no different, and serves as an excellent reminder to pull that plan together now if you don't already have one. Click here for more

Right now, more than ever, we need your help. We have a tremendous need for community fosters. As the virus spreads, the number of animals in shelters and rescues will continue to increase. At the same time, we anticipate de-creased interest and ability to adopt a new pet. So if you're able to foster a dog, cat, or rabbit for the next several weeks, you could help give animals a break from the shelter and make room for more animals who are in need. For more information about fostering, email foster@pasadenahumane.org.

F.Y.I.

We hope that you and your families are healthy. It is in times like these that demand that we practice self-care when it comes to our mental health, stress, and anxiety levels. Our habits of mind are so very important. We live in an age of "critical thinking," a centerpiece of reason which is vital to human progress and intellectual life.

However, through this almost-relentless consideration of what is 'wrong' and needs improvement, the constructive impulse this may marshal can easily fall over into complaint and despair. We do this to ourselves, perhaps, most frequently of all.

But if we can use this opportunity to see all that is wonderful in this life; like our relationships, our non-isolation, and our tremendous human resilience, we will come through this epidemic healthier and stronger than we entered it.

In the midst of the market uncertainty, please remember that we are here to guide you through your Real Estate needs.
